Our Take on Darjeeling Express

This is not a client rebrand or commissioned project. It's a passion-led creative exploration inspired by a story we admire.

Why This Concept?

We chose Darjeeling Express because it's more than just a restaurant it's a story that moved us.

A story of resilience, community, and purpose. The food is phenomenal, the concept even better, and the woman behind it all, Asma Khan, has created something truly meaningful.

Her story deserves to be told through a fresh lens ours.

Key Insights That Shaped Our Thinking

Through research and immersion, several powerful themes emerged that guided our creative direction:

Carving a New Path:

From law to ladles, Asma's journey from outsider to industry leader is one of self-belief, grit, and breaking the mold, proving that passion can rewrite the rules.

Empowerment through Sisterhood:

An all-women kitchen team, many self-taught, crafting meals with heart and heritage.

Giving Back, Always:

From sharing her space with refugee chefs to founding the Second Daughters Fund, Asma's vision is about uplifting others.

Key Insights That Shaped Our Thinking

Daawat-Style Dining:

Inspired by Indian feasting traditions, where food is shared, plates are passed, and stories are exchanged. It's less about courses and more about connection, where the table feels like home.

Cutting Through the Noise:

It's not about hype or luxury, just authentic food served with purpose.

Rooted in Nostalgia:

Menus reflect childhood memories, family recipes, and soul food that feels like home.

Creative Direction
